MILLER THOMSON OFFERS A WINNING BALANCE OF ATMOSPHERE AND BENEFITS TO FIRM MEMBERS

October 18, 2009 (Toronto) – Miller Thomson LLP has been recognized as one of Greater Toronto's Top 90 Employers for 2010. The annual competition is organized by Mediacorp, the editors of Canada's Top 100 Employers, which recognizes Greater Toronto employers that lead their industries in offering exceptional places to work.

"It is truly an honour to be named as one of the city's top work environments. We are committed to providing a supportive, challenging and rewarding environment to our lawyers and staff alike. We work very hard, but we strive to balance that work with a winning atmosphere, one that enables our people to grow and develop and achieve all of their goals as well as our own and our clients'," says Nora Osbaldeston, Office Managing Partner for Miller Thomson's Toronto and Markham offices.

To be considered for the award, Miller Thomson participated in an extensive application process where employers were evaluated on eight criteria: physical workplace, work atmosphere and social health, financial and family benefits, vacation and time off, employee communications, performance management, training and skills development, and community involvement. This year, Mediacorp invited 16,000 employers to apply and Miller Thomson competed in a final pool of over 2,600 employers.

Miller Thomson's two GTA locations – Toronto and Markham – are home to over 420 full-time lawyers and staff. Firm members are encouraged to participate in a number of office initiatives including training and career development programs, internal and external social events, and charity work.
